IN TEMA DI CONCORRENZA SLEALE SUI RAPPORTI TRA UBER E LE COOPERATIVE DI RADIOTAXI

PAOLO TULLIO

Uber Pop services have been recently banned in Italy. Different courts found Uber to have committed unfair competition practices against taxi drivers and radio taxi providers in the public transportation market. This parer aims at showing that Uber cannot be considered a competitor to radio taxi providers, since the latter do not provide a transportation service, but act only like intermediaries.
